Studio

- Addressed an issue when a source in an audio/video webcast is configured with the Media Mode "Send Audio Only & Receive Both Video & Audio" the source's audio did not work.

- Addressed an issue in the Studio Q&A where it did not display "approved" questions to users that didn't create the question.

- Addressed an issue where Staffers where showing up as a source even though the staffer right "Ask for Webcam/Mic" was disabled.

- Added support for the Theo Player for users viewing on Win 7 / IE 11.

- Updated the allowed characters within the slide notes to be unlimited.

- Added compatibility with WebEx Teams registered with a DX80 conferencing unit and the cloud meeting.

- Updated the color of the welcome message background and text within the Q&A panel.

- Addressed an issue with double byte characters not displaying properly for source names in the presenter console.

- Addressed an issue where when renaming a source did not update until refreshing.

- Addressed an issue when editing an encoder source where it was displaying "Undefined" upon saving.

- Updated the Studio QoE report in the data portal to temporarily remove the quality score.

- Addressed an issue where the Q&A was not displaying questions after the first page queue filled up.

- Updated the Studio System Test with additional translations.

- Updated the Studio Q&A with additional translations.

- Addressed an issue where a staffer/moderator mix/minus selection was becoming blank if its selected source became a fail over source.

Studio Webcasting

- Addressed an issue with the data portal login page where the "Forgot Password" link was not responding.

- Addressed an issue with the login IP feature, where IPs were not being blocked for webcasts that did not require registration.

- Addressed an issue with the display of special characters when entered into the Q&A panel for the "Welcome Message" field.

- Addressed an issue with the Attendance drill down in the Dashboard 2.0 report where when clicking on the "Attendance" grid, users were being taken to the registered user list.

- Addressed an issue with the "External ID" where it could not be deleted from the Settings page.

- Addressed an issue when creating a new registration page, where the default HTML blocks were being deleted.

- Addressed an issue where an "Undefined" was displaying when cancelling a "Test" email within Messaging.

Video Portals

- Updated the Staffer roles within program wizard so the "Low Latency View (WebRTC)" right is available.

- Updated the overview page within program wizard so the max recording duration is displayed.

west | Virtual Events

- Updated the responsive Resource Center space to remove zero count from the subject categories if there are no visible results to filter by.

- Addressed an issue with a new or existing integration (Marketo or Eloqua) transfer, where "NaN" was appearing in Schedule Date/Time fields.

- Addressed an issue where message board posts were not displaying in the responsive spaces.

- Updated the "Who's Here" space to remove the Event Activity and Geolocation tabs. These were removed for optimization purposes.

- Addressed an issue where when trying to launch the workspace editor in Online Events was not functioning properly.

Cross Platform

- Added certification for Firefox 67

- Added certification for Chrome 75

- Updated the API Explorer to use %2B instead of a plus (+) sign.

- Addressed an issue with the external course API OpCode L where it was not filtering course completions based on the start and end date of the webcast.

- Optimized the User List report across the platform and improved processing by 25%.

- Updated the Scribe connector to allow mapping of show survey questions and answers in format S#Q# when the display order # is over 2 digits long.

- Addressed an issue with the setup page for Marketo where the programs were being listed.

- Addressed an issue with SAML SSO where with certain authorization decisions users were not able to enter the event.

- Addressed an issue with the Eloqua transfer field mappings where they were not be saved correctly in the mapping table.

- Addressed an issue with the certificate editor, where images added through the editor were not saved properly.

- Addressed an issue with the CPE Admin tool, where attendee checkpoint completion statuses were not being displayed accurately.

- Addressed an issue within the Amplify server configuration where the IACServerID was not trimming extra spaces at the end of the ID.

- Addressed an issue with syndication where some presentations were not displaying the syndication list.

- Addressed an issue with the usage log report in the data portal where the "User Details" section was displaying NULL values.

- Updated the course completion API to return the user External ID.

- Update the multi-reg pages to display the DLS abbreviation.

- Addressed an issue with the CPE Metrics report where it was not properly populating the test completions.

- Updated the Studio webcast copy to include over the encoding profiles set within the copied webcast.