

Studio

- Addressed an issue when uploading a profile image within the presenter console where the image was not saving.
- Addressed an issue when embedding a Studio webcast into a 3rd party page so it launches in a new window when accessing via iOS and Safari.
- Updated the encoder XML in Studio to use “Main” encoding profile for video as well as 128kbps for the audio bitrate.
- Addressed an issue with the URL panel types in a webcast layout where if there was “?” in the url, it was being stripped out.
- Addressed an issue with the echo cancellation in Studio where it was causing garbled audio for language WebRTC sources. The echo cancellation will now be disabled for language WebRTC sources.

- Addressed an issue with deleting a certificate template from the certificate browser where it was not properly update course mappings that used the template.
- Addressed an issue with language alternative icon for the certificate message, where it appeared to be disabled by default.
- Addressed an issue where when the “Send Certificate” option was not checked; the system was still required to select a certificate template.
- Addressed an issue where the registration totals in Studio Webcasting and 2.0 stock reports was displaying a 0.
- Addressed an issue within the Webcast Portals where when updating the Webcast Thumbnail Image and Grouping options, the Save function never activated.

- Addressed an issue when trying to save HTML within a speaker bio where it was not saving.

- Addressed an issue within group chats where the timestamp feature was not displaying.
- Addressed an issue within the custom CSS section where updates were not saving properly.
- Addressed an issue within Content Structure where presentation tracks were not saving when a presentation had html in its abstract.
- Addressed an issue within the Lounge host space where when trying to reset a group chat room, it was not triggering a reset.
- Addressed an issue within the Promotions section where the Event Shell option was not displaying under the Display Ads.

Cross Platform

- Added certification for Firefox 78
- Added certification for Chrome 83
- Addressed an issue with the External Presentation API, where an error was being returned when creating a new Studio presentation.
- Updated the Eloqua integration to accommodate for chunking of data to avoid the Eloqua restriction of sending a large amount of data in a single push.
- Addressed an issue with the Marketo and Eloqua integration where it was resending all data each time the schedule ran.